A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the use of not a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

RABBI ATTACKS POPE.

Rabbi Joseph Silverman, of Temple Emanu-El, New York, made a strong plea for the advancement of knowledge in his address to the congregation at the services held on the Day of Atonement yesterday. He criticised the Pope for his encyclical forbidding the teaching of modern philosophy in Roman Catholic schools, condemned physicians who made a trade of their profession, and deplored the modern lack of right thinking in the conduct of governments.

Among other things he said:

"The great potentate of the Roman Catholic Church has issued to his thousands of subjects a decree declaring that what he spells by the term modernism, and what others spell by the terms sciences and philosophy, shall be excluded, rigidly from the churches and the schools.

"He instructs, practically, that the index expurgatorius shall exclude all showing for modern things, all reform in thought. It is time—high time, I repeat—that the governments of the great religious organizations should protest against such a decree; a dictum that would tend to shunt the human race 1,000 years backward and make for the upholding of a blind faith that can never bring true happiness to humanity."

Rabbi Silverman referred to the great step in the advance of our knowledge that the acceptance of the Darwinian theory had brought, but complained that people have not arisen to the full height of their intellectual capabilities endowed by the light of an advanced civilization.

He gave his remarks a practical turn by reference to the medical profession. He declared that it was not a profession, but a trade that the doctors plied today and added:

"It is not the practitioner of a profession who, with his commission to heal from on high, goes into a household and demands his fee of $500 or $1,000 before he will apply the knife to the cancer, the anaesthetic to the wound. Such practices ought to be condemned from every pulpit, every rostrum in the land. The government ought to step in and prevent them. It is not the art of healing, I reiterate; it is a trade.

Dr. Silverman denounced the present system of government saying that the governments of the States and municipalities were constituted, not to meet the demands of the people, but for the good of the political organizations.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to be.—D. H. BEACH, Midland City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Gibson & Timberman.

HARRISON COMMITS SUICIDE.

Rather than spend twenty years in the North Carolina penitentiary for kidnapping Kenneth Beasley, the little son of State Senator Beasley, a crime of which one of his last acts was to declare himself guiltless, Joshua Harrison took his own life in the new Gladstone Hotel in Norfolk at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

In Harrison's room was found a letter signed by himself in which he declared that he was innocent of the crime of which he was convicted and knew nothing whatever about it.

Harrison was convicted in Elizabeth City, N. C., February, 1905, for kidnapping the young son of State Senator Beasley, of Williamson, Pasquotank county. The boy disappeared while on his way to school, and has never been seen since, although a score of detectives searched for him for months. Harrison was an enemy of Senator Beasley, and it was charged against him that he kidnapped and murdered the boy for revenge. He denied the charge to his dying hour.

There was, however, some strong circumstantial evidence against him, and the accused was unable to prove an alibi for the afternoon when the boy disappeared.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everythere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc.

A weak Stomach, causing dispepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation of intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail sample free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by E S. Leadbeater & Sons.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

MRS. NATION ARRESTED.

Carrie Nation is again in the toils of the law. She was taken to the First Precinct Station in Washington shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Policeman McDaniel. The charge opposite her name is "disorderly conduct." Later she was sent to the house of detention until her case is called for trial in the District branch of the Police Court.

The reason of Mrs. Nation's trip to the station-house, according to Policeman McDaniel, is that she declined to stop lecturing from the Pennsylvania avenue steps of the Postoffice Department building when a crowd of over 200 persons had gathered to listen.

The policeman at first asked her to leave. She informed McDaniel before her audience that she had never been arrested legally in Washington, and that he had no right to take her. She was then escorted to the station, where she gave her occupation as "housekeeper" and her age as 60 years. When asked if she desired to deposit collateral for her appearance in court this morning, Mrs. Nation declared emphatically "No."

Lieutenant Hartley ordered her taken to the house of detention and while waiting for the wagon Mrs. Nation turned to the principal desk of the station and spread about $100 upon it. Lieutenant Hartley had her secretary notified by telephone, and also sent out for messanger boys in order to send messages for the prisoner.

While in the station Lieutenant Hartley and the other police did all they could for the defendant, and Mrs. Nation was equally courteous.

PHOTOGRAPHER ARRESTED.

The fashionable Northside Park district of Wichita, Kansas, was thrown into a turmoil Tuesday when the residents saw a young woman scantily clad posing in a lily pond, while a man with a large camera made several exposures. Twenty-five telephone calls were received at police headquarters and the people rushed out of their houses to the spot. The girl, Miss Mona Payton, nineteen years old, was sent home, and the photographer, J. J. Todd, of Wichita, was arrested. Todd said he wanted a picture to enter in a photographic contest. He said he wanted to take a picture of the girl's head and shoulders and convert it into a picture of a mermaid basking in a pond of lilies. Women who discovered the photographer at work declare they found the girl's clothes on a park bench. The police have taken charge of Todd's camera and the plates he made.

THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 19, 1907.

THE RECENT encyclical of Pope Pius X. should prove a warning not only to the millions over whom he stands as the shepherd, but to all in every church. The prelate's action is aimed at so-called modern science, including the higher criticism of the Bible which is inimical to the welfare of the church in that it seeks to overthrow the supernatural. It denies the creative ideas—the ideas that something came out of nothing. It would rob the Head of the Christian church of his divinity, using the word in its strict sense. It questions the existence of a hereafter and denies the immortality of the soul. For modern science there is no heaven, no hell, and believers in it are the Sadducees of the twentieth century. The theory of future reward and punishment is swept aside. In short, modern science strikes at the very foundation of the faith of all believers in a future life. That modern conclusions are stealthily making inroads into all churches is a sad fact, and everything tends to show that we are not living in a day of faith, but of agnosticism. Men profess to know nothing of the hereafter and seem to care less. The church is no longer the bulwark against scepticism, but it can safely be said that thousands attend the different churches who are but little interested in the statements or claims of the Bible, while a large percentage if called upon to give conscientious answers would acknowledge their disbelief in much "that has been written." This spiritual lethargy has in a large measure been brought about by writers on science, and the readers of such productions seldom examine the other side. The church should inaugurate a movement toward stemming this tide of "modernism" and unconcern, and those upon whom the responsibility of teaching rests should endeavor to place their hearers in a position to be able to give a reason for the hope that is within them.

"THE NEGRO should not seek to urrace himself, for what the negro will be in the United States depends solely and entirely upon his own efforts," declared Rev. Dr. C. E. Morris, president of the negro Baptist national convention, in addressing that organization in Washington a few days ago. "We would educate the head to think," he further declared, "and then we must develop the negro above the point of despising labor. Teach our young men and women to work, and to work hard." W. R. Tolliver, D. D., of Greensboro, N. C., said in part: "What the negro race will be in this world depends upon what we put into life ourselves. The negro must do more work and less talk. Talk alone never yet made a people, and never will. It is deeds and achievement that we need." Nannie H. Burroughs, of the woman's auxiliary society, spoke on similar lines. She said: "Many opportunities are going from the women of the negro race because of their incompetency. They should be trained in all phases of honorable work. They should be unashamed of the washtub and the kitchen, and it is necessary that in this age of the world they should know how to work." The above are common-sense observations, and should be heeded by all members of the colored race.

THE Navy Department has learned to its remarkably good advantage that newspaper advertising pays when it comes to going after recruits. Modern methods of advertising, as conducted by business concerns, were put into operation shortly after the advent of Secretary Metcalf, as the head of the department, last December and since then the department has relied more upon the columns of the daily press than upon the old-time highly colored semi-melodramatic posters that were put up in postoffices and recruiting stations. The results have been highly gratifying to Secretary Metcalf. He has found that there has been a decided increase in enlistments the past several months, more particularly during July and August. The Navy Department could have ascertained the potency of advertising by communicating with any successful business man.

THE SESSIONS of the national prison congress were held yesterday at the University of Chicago. They consisted, as on previous days, of a number of papers and addresses relative to the management of jails and prisons. The chief address, that of Attorney General Bonaparte, included an argument for the extension of the death penalty of crimes for which it is not now inflicted. Among other things the Attorney General said the criminal class is a menace, and he would make an attempt to commit capital crime, itself capital, and provide for the execution of persons thrice convicted of major offenses.--Obedience, he said, in the law's end. It should be apparent to all that the time has come when some measures should be formulated to check the tide of crime.

JAPAN is the country in which habits of politeness begin to be formed with the first training of the child. Should the children when emerging from school see a stranger on the opposite side of the street, they courtesy, and, having made an exceedingly respectful bow, pass on. This civility is repeated by all the pupils. It makes a very pretty picture, and illustrates the polite bearing of the Japanese, who are thus trained to civility from childhood. Before a baby can speak, almost before it can toddle along, it is taught to lift the hand to the forehead on receiving a gift. Every child will make this signal of respect and gratitude without being reminded by its parents. This is a great contrast with the children of Alexandria.

THE British Trade Union Congress has adopted a resolution demanding a State pension of $1.25 a week for everybody over 60 years of age. It seems that the desire for pensions is extending throughout the civilized world.

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Sept. 19.

Down in the basement of the State Department the United States is running a diplomat factory. In about thirty days it will export its first output. Some months ago a large number of would-be consuls of the United States were subjected to a severe examination. Many flunked, but a sufficient number got good enough grades to be given appointments. Under the reorganization of the consular service, by which it is planned to promote promising youngsters up to the well-paying jobs, it was decided to bring the vintage of 1907 to Washington for special instruction. Every day one of the high-brewed bureau chiefs marches into the school room and delivered a long lecture on citizenship, accounts, the constitution, or official etiquette. The embryo statesmen must listen and appear interested, for it may be that the instructor of today may be the officials booster, or executioneer, in future years.

According to predictions made by the American delegates to the Hague in dispatches to the State Department, the Peace Conference, now in session there, will adjourn about October 5. Although Joseph H. Choate, chairman of the delegation, has failed, after a diplomatic struggle, to have the Hague adopt a plan for the organization of a permanent court of arbitration, the unselfishness of the American goverament in the matter, it is believed in Washington will appeal to the world. While other countries were defeating the proposition, because of the possibility that they would not have a representative in the court, it was plain that America desired no partisan to sit on the court to try any possible case that might involve her interests, but was willing to leave all questions to be determined by a unbiased, impartial court one having continuity of precedents and broadness of close association.

Two appeals were made to the federal government today, under the Erdmann act to settle railroad labor troubles. One was from the Missouri Pacific system, which is threatened with a strike by engineers, and the other from the Chicago, St. Paul and Great Western, which is having trouble with the boilermakers and machine shop men. The appeals were addressed to Commissioner of Labor, Charles P. Neill, and Chairman Knapp, of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Knapp will be in St. Paul today to take care of the latter case. Neill left here today for St. Louis and will strive to settle the Missouri Pacific matter.

The government is after an alleged paper trust. The Department of Justice has several experts in the field, and officials of the department hope that they may have the results of the investigation in hand for consideration before the first of the year. When the attorney general receives a copy of the resolution adopted yesterday in New York by the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, calling for prosecution of a combination among paper manufacturers, he will announce the action already taken by the government and solicit the aid of the association in the investigation. The Department of Justice is wondering whether it has been the victim of sharp practice. It secured the voluntary dissolution of a paper trust, May 11, 1906, after an action in equity had been begun, December 1904, in the United States courts in Minnesota, under direction of Attorney General Moody, as the result of an investigation conducted by his predecessor, Philander C. Knox. The General Paper Company, as the trust was known, appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States from the order of the circuit court of Minnesota and Wisconsin, calling for the production of books and papers. When it lost, March 12, 1906, the trust consented to an entry of dissolution, which was then entered. Officials are now debating whether the government, in view of the fact that it had won a victory in the highest tribunal, should not have gone ahead and required the production of books and papers from the trust, in order to avoid just such a contingency as it is feared has arisen. The investigation into the paper manufacturing business will be pushed with unusual zeal.

So great has been the drought this summer in central and northern Mexico, that large quantities of corn, beans and cotton must be imported into that section in order to prevent actual suffering, according to consular reports to this government.

As an evidence of the good feeling being nurtured by the countries of South America for one another, Ecuador yesterday celebrated with great fervor the Independence Day of Chili, according to a dispatch the State Department today received from U. S. Minister William C. Fox, at Quito. The minister explained that the big celebration was in return for the celebration of the Ecuadorean Independence Day by Chili.

Yuan Shih-K'ai, viceroy of Chihili province, for the Chinese government, has formally expressed his appreciation to the American government of the cordial reception extended to Col. Li Ting-Hain and others of the Chinese delegation to attend the naval and military display at the Jamestown Exposition last spring. Minister Rockhill, at Peking, has forwarded to the State Department a copy of a note which he has received from the viceroy.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, who was arrested while speaking in front of the postoffice yesterday, paid $25 fine today.

News of the Day.

A dispatch from Manila says Bishop Frederick Zadock Rooker, of the Catholic diocese of Jaro, Iliilo, is dead of paralysis of the brain.

The meat kings of Chicago may be indicted as a result of an investigation being made by the government into the causes of the recent rise in the prices of meat.

A dispatch from Rome says that the next papal consistory will be held in the middle of November or the middle of December. It is not believed that any foreign cardinals will be created, but the names of four Italians have already been decided upon for elevation to the cardinalate.

Thomas Sellman, thirty-three years old, a farmer who lives at Berwyn, Md., is dying at the Emergency Hospital in Washington from injuries received by being hurled from his team in a collision with a street car at 7:30 o'clock last night at the intersection of Thirteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue.

More than ten thousand people witnessed the death at Troy, N. Y., yesterday of Edward Richards, an aeronaut. The parachute became unmanageable because of the wind. Richards loosened his hold and shot toward the ground like a rock. He fell into a tree nearly a mile from where he started and was dashed to death.

The dead body of Georgia Brooks, who lived in the northeastern part of Troy, Ala., was found in Henderson's woods about a quarter of a mile from her home early yesterday. On Tuesday night three shots were heard from the vicinity in which her body was found, and the examination of the body disclosed the fact that she had been shot three times. There is no clue to the murderer.

Passengers from Havana arriving at Mobile yesterday stated that on outbreak of negroes is expected in Cuba about the commencement of the sugar-grinding season. The seeming unrest is attributed to the action of American negroes, who have gone to the interior and told the half breeds and Cuban negroes that if they came under American rule they would be compelled to suffer the same "indignities" as the negroes of the southern States. This has aroused the blacks and trouble is expected.

At an early hour yesterday morning the body of William H. Desmond, jr., a prominent young stenographer, eighteen years old, was found by the Southern Railway tracks, near the depot at Charlotte, N. C., horribly mangled. It was learned later that the young man went to the station to see some girl friends off, and attempted to jump from the moving train at a crossing. He evidently fell beneath the wheels, and probably every wheel passed over his body, as his head, arms, and legs were entirely severed from the trunk.

A final effort was made at The Hague yesterday by the examining committee of the peace conference to reach an agreement in the selection of judges for the permanent court, but without result, and the whole scheme now seems marked for failure. Germany and Great Britain adhered immovably to their determination that the great powers should have a predominant position in the court. The representatives of the smaller powers were equally resolute in refusing to recognize any court not based on equal rights for all the sovereign States.

News has just reached Charleston, W. Va., that Theodore Darby, aged twenty-one, shot and killed Samuel Blackman at the church door at Sun, Fayette county, near Mount Hope, Tuesday night. It appears that Darby had taken a sister of Blackman to church and the girl's brother objected. Blackman lay in wait at the church door for the couple, and when they departed from the church Blackman struck Darby over the head and shoulders with a club, felling him to the ground, badly bruised and injured. Darby, who is a good shot, is said to have drawn a pistol as he sank to the ground under the blows from the club wielded by Blackman, and fired one shot at his assailant. Blackman fell dead. Darby was arrested.

MR. BRYAN WILL ACCEPT.

Friends of Mr. William Jennings Bryan announce that within the next few weeks he will issue a statement defining his attitude toward next year's democratic presidential nomination. The statement will be issued after a conference between Mr. Bryan and his most trusted friends from all parts of the country, and will be in the nature of an outline of the platform upon which he is willing for the third time to lead his party in a national contest.

In this statement, it is said, Mr. Bryan will announce that he is willing to accept the nomination, if it be the judgment of the convention and the party at large that he is the most available democrat for the presidency. In order to assist the party in reaching a conclusion as to his advisability, Mr. Bryan will state his position on all public questions that are likely to figure as issues in the campaign.

FAIRFAX COURT.

Circuit court was opened at Fairfax Monday by Judge J. B. T. Thornton, recently appointed. It was announced that all criminal cases will be passed until the next term of the court on account of the illness of C. Vernon Ford, the commonwealth attorney, the docket of civil cases only being called.

The grand jury was charged by the judge, who also handed the jury a complaint filed in the office of the commonwealth attorney against persons for the violation of the election in law having paid the poll tax of voters for the purpose of obtaining their votes.

After the retirement of the grand jury civil cases were called until court took a recess for dinner.

The grand jury reported an indictment against Harvey Keys, charged with the murder of Jack McGuen near Pleasant Valley last August.

It is reported that C. Vernon Ford, who has been in ill health since his return from Europe several years ago, is improving very slowly and will not be able to resume his duties as commonwealth attorney for several months. In Mr. Ford's absence J. W. Rust of his office is acting in some cases for Mr. Ford.

Virginia News.

One man was killed and several persons were injured on two rear-end collisions which followed each other closely Tuesday night at Parkseley, on the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad.

The resignation of James M. Barr as director general of the Jamestown Exposition will be accepted, and Col. Walter H. Taylor, president of the Marine Bank of Norfolk, in all probability will be elected as his successor.

Decomposed so far that it was unrecognizable, the body of N. J. Oliver was found yesterday morning in the woods near Richmond. The deceased disappeared from home on April 30th, and there is every reason to believe he repaired to the woods and killed himself.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant, this week, to citizens of this State, of the following patents: Charles H. Hiner, of Bridgewater, shade-roller; Otto Meyer, of Richmond, producing waterproof, characters upon paper; Joseph H. Seawell, of Richmond, design for fob.

Henry McMurrry, twenty years old, and foreman of the Ducktown iron furnaces at Bristol, was fatally shot by "Bud" Hale, colored, yesterday. There was no immediate provocation for the shooting, and, according to witnesses, the negro deliberately walked up to McMurray while he was on duty at the furnace and emptied the contents of a .38 caliber revolver into his breast, one ball entering an inch above the heart. The negro fled as McMurray fell mortally wounded, and a mob of several hundred citizens was soon organized and started in pursuit. Bloodhounds are on the fugitive's trail.

To aid the Virginia Christian College in its effort to secure a gift of $20,000 offered by Andrew Carnegie, upon condition that the college raise $30,000, a business men's committee has been formed in Lynchburg to raise the $10,000 necessary to complete the fund. The college authorities have secured $20,000 from the Christian churches of the State. The college will use this $50,000 for the erection of a boys' dormatory and a college building, which will give it facilities for about 350 students and a much better equipment. With these buildings in use, the college has the promise of a large gift for endowment. The college has entered upon its fifth year with more than 200 students.

W. McDonald Lee, chairman of the State board of fisheries, who has been employing the boats of the oyster navy for the patrolling of the waters of the State for the apprehension of violators of the oyster laws, yesterday denied the allegation that Gov. Swanson had taken one of the oyster police boats and used it for his personal pleasure, and that the boat was out of commission by reason of lack of funds. Lee made it plain that the facts in the case have been greatly exaggerated. The governor had the boat for a short time and made proper payment for its use, that being one of the conditions of its acceptance when the tender was made him.

FORAKER SOUNDS ALARM.

Senator Joseph B. Foraker, in addressing several thousand residents and former residents of his native county of Highland, Ohio, yesterday reviewed with alarm the desire, which, he says, is prevalent in certain parts of the country, for a change or broader and different judicial interpretation of the national constitution. Senator Foraker defended State's rights, and said increased federal power would be a calamity. He asserted that there is a positive purpose to overthrow the restraints of the republic's fundamental law. Additional authority would swamp Congress unless a more autocratic method of enforcing law were adopted. Senator Foraker further said: "It was treason to some in 1861-1865 to undertake with arms to overthrow the constitution. It is not within the constitutional definition of treason to undertake to overthrow that instrument by the advocacy of the idea that it shall be changed by judicial construction and interpretation, or by compelling disregard of its provisions through the force of public sentiment.

THE OKLAHOMA ELECTION.

Returns from Tuesday's election in Oklahoma that arrived last night continue to indicate that the constitution was adopted 3 to 1, that prohibition was carried by at least 30,000, and that the whole democratic State ticket, headed by Charles N. Haskell, of Muskogee, was elected by 20,000 plurality. In the congressional election, the democrats seem to have chosen four of the five representatives. The legislature is democratic by a large majority and will elect as United States Senators Robert L. Owen and T. P. Gore, a blind orator. Senator-elect Owen is a native of Lynchburg, Va., but has for years resided in the Indian Territory and practiced law there.

Investigating Standard Oil.

New York, Sept. 19.—With figures showing that the Standard Oil subsidiary companies have made profits as great as one thousand per cent. in a single year, with the details of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company's juggling when that concern was driven out of Texas; with the books of the trustees who controlled the original oil trust under the agreement of 1882 and the records of liquidation extending over eight years after the Ohio Supreme Court had declared the trust agreement illegal in 1892—with all this ammunition, Frank B. Kellogg was ready today to begin a terrific attack upon the greatest stronghold of finance in the world, the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, which the government is seeking to dissolve.

With gentle voice and mildest of manners Kellogg, the counsel for the government, is extracting from reluctant witnesses information involving the long kept secrets of the greatest of all corporations, and throwing light upon the inner workings of the business organization considered the most marvellous in the world.

That the Corsicana Oil Company, now doing business in Texas, is controlled by the Standard and held for that company in such a way as to avoid the action of the State in ousting the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, was practically charged today by Kellogg during the proceedings.

On account of the illness of Rosenthal, of Chicago, one of the chiefs of counsels for the Standard Oil Company, the government's dissolution case against the corporation was adjourned at 2 o'clock this afternoon until 10:30 tomorrow.

Japan to Annex Korea.

Tokio, Sept. 19.—To put a stop to what the Mikado believes will otherwise be interminable warfare with Korean malcontents, Japanese statesmen admit that their country will almost certainly annex the hermit kingdom in the near future.

While discontent will doubtless continue for some time in any event, the Japanese think there will be less trouble in suppressing native Korean uprisings if they are relieved from the necessity of acting nominally through another government.

With roving Korean bands under discharged soldiers scouring the entire country, killing the Japanese police, railroad officials and civilians as well as every Korean suspected of Japanese sympathies, the situation, it is declared, is becoming too serious to continue.

Mysterious Tragedy.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 19.—Talbott McDonald, a chemist, is in the Allegheny Hospital, suffering from laudanum poison, and his wife, known as Mme. Bessie Smith McDonald, "spiritual adviser," is dead, her throat being cut from ear to ear last night by her husband, according to John Smith, 8-year-old son of the dead woman. The man will recover. The tragedy is wrapped in mystery, being witnessed only by the child, who gives the following account: "Papa said to mamma: 'I have your letter, Madam,' and then cut her throat with his razor. He was jealous because because they brought me from England instead of Willie McDonald, papa's boy." McDonald was arrested in a drug store and declared his wife cut her own throat.

Suit Against Oil Company.

Findlay, O., Sept. 19.—A suit to oust the Manhattan Oil Co. from doing business in Ohio has been filed here by Prosecutor David, who has made several attacks on the Standard and its allied companies. David charges that the company is operating in defiance of the antitrust laws of Ohio. The petition alleges that the Manhattan is a Standard branch and is attempting to eliminate the National Refining Company by subsidizing the National's customers by offering three cents more than the Buckeye Pipe Company, Standard's buying organization. The Manhattan is alleged to have secured from 75 to 95 per cent of the production by its offer.

To Wage War Against Blue Laws.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Elated over their success in securing the defeat of the proposed new charter for Chicago, the united societies for local self-government now propose to push their campaign throughout the state and a general attack will be launched against the so-called "blue laws." According to Nicholas Michaels, the new Federation head, "personal liberty" will be the cry of the movement. There are sixty affiliated societies in Cook county with a membership of 10,000. In many of the cities down State these societies also are strong, and it is believed they will organize along the lines of the Chicago organization.

Quick Trip Anticipated.

New York, Sept. 19.—The Hamburg-American liner Deutschland is due at Sandy Hook about 3 o'clock this afternoon. The liner was in wireless communication with the Siasconsett, Mass., station at 8:15 last night. It was at that time 180 miles east of Nantucket Sound shoals lightship. Assuming that it passes Sandy Hook at three in the afternoon, it will have made the run from Cherbourg in the remarkable time of five days and about twenty-one hours, an average speed of nearly 22 1-2 knots hourly, not quite equaling, however, the average record of the Cunarder Lusitania.

Will Hold Sessions in Vault.

Racine, Wis. Sept. 19.—Mayor Hortick and his board of aldermen will hereafter hold their secret sessions in a fireproof vault to escape inquisitive newspaper reporters. Mayor Hortick does not care to have his pet schemes become public property, but this has happened on several occasions recently. First he thought there were mind readers among the reporters, and then he attributed the leak to a secret telephone arrangement. But the mayor says nothing like this will happen again, for the next session will be held in the fire-proof vault in the board of education rooms.

Killed in Collison.

Toledo, O., Sept. 19.—A west bound limited car on the Lake Shore Electric Railway ran into an open switch at Hays siding, two miles east of here, at noon today, killing two men and injuring twenty-five people. Conductor Frank Burns was crushed to death, as was also an unidentified man.

Capitol Grafters.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 19.—"Until the present cases are disposed of there will be no proceedings against any of the other men charged with complicity in the Harrisburg graft, but there will be numerous arrests latter."

Deputy Attorney-General Cunningham sums up thus the situation in Pennsylvania's campaign for vengeance on the State treasury looters and the warfare for the recovery of the stolen money. Yesterday's arrests were hastened by the necessity for action before prosecution was barred by the statute of limitations.

Cunningham refused to indicate who will be arrested next, but it is intimated that a number of persons high in the political world will have considerable to explain. At least five of the number were not openly connected with capitol contracts, but are suspected of receiving commissions for their influence.

The amounts of thefts is approximatly $4,381,000 on a maximum expenditure of a trifle less than $13,000,000, and that all of this amount went into the pockets neither of the contractors or their tools is known absolutely to Governor Stuart and his legal advisers.

If the charges made secretly against high politicians are established, men whose escutcheons have hitherto remained unsullied will be smirched.

Murders and Suicides.

New York, Sept. 19.—Henry Fischner today killed the woman he loved better than his life and then sent a bullet into his brain. Johanna Hoffman, 22 years old, told him a week ago for the last time that she would not marry him. "Then I will kill you," he said. Today Fischner walked into the restaurant conducted by the girl's uncle at 821 Tenth Avenue. Her back was turned. Without a word he fired and the bullet went straight through her heart. A second report followed instantly and Fischner fell on the floor. He is dying at Roosevelt Hospital.

Franklin, N. H., Sept. 19.—Angered by her repeated refusals to marry him and mad with jealousy, Louis Cote today shot and killed Mrs. Nellie Clark Pennock, then cut his throat with a razor and died beside the body of his victim.

Sold $35 For Seventy-five Cents.

Philadelphia, Penn., Sept. 19.—Charles Hutchinson a farmer, near Wynnewood, had just received two $10 gold pieces and three $5 bills from a milk dealer. He laid the money on a shelf, where his 8-year-old son got hold of it. The boy was playing with it on his way to school, when a stranger stopped him. "Give you this bright, new white piece for that yellow one," he said, taking out a quarter and pointing to one of the $10 gold pieces. The exchange was made. For another quarter the stranger bought the second gold piece and a third quarter bought in the three $5 bills. The boy went on his way to school well pleased. His father wasn't quite so pleased when he heard about it.

Carried off by an Eagle.

Hungtinton, W. Va., Sept. 19—One of a pair of giant bald eagles that nest in a dead chestnut tree on the mountain near Marrowbone, on the Big Sandy river, carried 3-year-old Gladys Vreeland to the top of a tall hemlock tree and dropped her through the branches into a pile of hay unharmed. The child weighs 40 pounds and the bird was barely able to maintain its flight under the weight. The eagle did not mean to carry off the child, but was attempting to seize a hen, when Gladys came to the rescue, and her clothes caught in the big bird's talons as it mounted. The child screamed and struggled and the bird seemed to try to free itself. Her clothes were finally torn and she fell.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Sept. 19.—Attorney Martin W. Littleton, the head of Harry Thaw's legal staff, would not be unwilling, it is understood, to accept D. M. Delmas, who managed the Pittsburger's defense at his first trial for killing Stanford White, as one of his assistants. Delmas, however, his friends say, will have nothing further to do with the case unless he can have absolute authority. Delmas left San Francisco for New York, nevertheless, today for a consultation with Thaw and Littleton. Whether the conference will result in some compromise by which the Californian will again figure among the prisoner's defenders, is as yet uncertain.

The Missing Cash and Gem Box.

New York, Sept. 19.—Attorney B. F. Norris, of Brooklyn, who offered $15,000 reward Monday for a cash box, said to contain $196,000 in money and $40,000 in gems, which he asserts a woman client left on a New Haven train, says he has two men under surveillance today and expects to have one arrested soon. Inspector McCafferty, in charge of the detective bureau, i authority for the statement that the mysterious woman is Mrs. G. M. George, a guest at the Holland House. The hotel management denies, however, that she is registered there.

Young Woman's Leap.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—With no desire except to feel the exhilaration of leaping from the Lincoln Park bridge, 100 feet, into the lagoon, Alice Witte, 21 years old, took the plunge and today is charged with disorderly conduct. She will probably be allowed to return to her work as a domestic. Miss Witte walked across the structure three times, when she was finally overcome by the desire to take the plunge from "suicide bridge." She said she was unable to overcome its dreadful fascination.

Overdue Training Ship

New Orleans, Sept. 19.—The United States naval training ship Hunteas, bound from Pensacola to St. Louis, via this port, is two days due. There have been heavy storms on the gulf and fears are felt for the vessels safety.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One Of the Best on the Market.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purposes for which it is intended. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

Kidnapped Children.

New York, Sept. 19.—Somewhere in East Brooklyn the black hand is holding a houseful of kidnapped children, according to four-year-old Nicolo Tomasto, until their parents ransom them in sums varying according to their individual means.

Nicolo was himself kidnapped August 19. Early today he was found sleeping on the steps of a public school building in lower Manhattan. Whether his parents paid a reward for him and his kidnappers turned him adrift to find his way home as best he could, or whether they simply deemed it useless to hold him longer the police do not know.

His story is generally accepted as true, however. The epidemic of mysterious disappearances of children lends it an air of probability, and the boy's unusual brightness for his age makes it seem likely that he knows what he is talking about.

The child confesses himself unable to tell where he was kept during his absence from home. He says he was kidnapped by a man who offered to take him to his father, taken a roundabout journey lasting several hours and finally shut up in a house with several other children who told stories similar to his own.

During his absence his parents received numerous letters demanding money for his return and the police think the kidnappers' terms were finally complied with, though the Tomastos will not admit it. Nicolo was evidently drugged before being taken from his place of captivity. The police are making every effort to find the house in which he was held a prisoner.

Vessel Destroyed by Fire.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Without a living soul on board and crackling with flame from water line to mast, a large wooden freight vessel was sighted by the passenger steamship Eastern States off Long Point, 75 miles up-lake from here, last night.

From the fact that nothing has been heard of the rescue of the crew, it is feared every one on board the craft must have perished.

Marine officials are scouring the lake with tugs today in the hope of rescuing survivors, or, at least, learning the lost vessel's identity.

The Eastern States was en route from Cleveland to Buffalo and Captain McLaughlin ran as close to the flaming ship as he dared, satisfying himself that no one needed his aid.

It was later learned that the steamer was the Majestic and was built in 1895 at a cost of $80,000.

Captain Hagan and crew of 17 men took to the small boats and in less than an hour were picked up by the steamer C. M. Tower, which arrived here at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Relinquishes Bible Class.

New York, Sept. 19.—Members of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church Young Men's Bible Class—John D. Rockefeller's, Jr., class—are canvassing on the choice of a new leader today. A committee is drawing up a resolution in the mean time expressive of the class's deep regret that young Rockefeller should deem it necessary to give up his leadership. The resignation was receive from Mr. Rockefeller at a business meeting of the class. The letter—for Rockefeller was not present in person—said the writer's business and fear of a recurrence of ill-health compelled him to conserve all his strength. He has occupied the post of leader for eight years and made the class the most famous of the kind in the world. The members had no choice, but to accept the resignation, effective October 1, which they did at once.

Disappearance of Bookkeeper.

New York, Sept. 19.—Allen M. Maxwell, a banker of Brooklyn, has reported to the police the simultaneous disappearance of his bookkeeper, Seigfred Somnet, and of sixteen American Express money orders, each of which is so drawn that it may be filled out for $50. Though Maxwell does not definitely accuse Somnet, he wants the authorities to find him. Three of the orders, he says, have been cashed. Somnet, he adds, is reported to have taken passage on the steamship La Provence, due to leave for Europe today.

Jewelry Thief Sentenced.

London, Sept. 19.—Arthur Preston Greene, convicted of the theft of $4,500 worth of jewelry from Tiffany's and other Regent street gem dealers, was sentenced today to five years' imprisonment. Charles P. Rorer tried as his confederate, was acquitted. Greene and Rorer were arrested in New York last March as they were leaving the steamship America extradited and brought back to Lon[illegible]

Twenty-two Persons Sentenced to Death.

Riga, Russia, Sept. 19.—Convicted before military tribunals of participation in the 1905 rebellion, twenty-two persons have been sentenced to death. Several of the condemned are women and nearly half of the others are mere boys of 18 or 20. Their trials were rushed through with a speed which made them little better than mere travesties of justice. The prisoners had been held so long without herings that it was beginning to be believed the extreme penalty would not be enforced against them.

The Dreaded Beri-beri.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 19.—Do Japanese traveling from one city to another spread the dreaded disease of beri-beri? City Physician Slattery, of Lincoln, is so certain that they do that he has undertaken an examination of all Orientals in Lincoln, and he is urging the government to make similar examination in all parts of the country. Dr. Slattery came to this conclusion when he learned that 20 Japanese are suffering from the disease in a railroad camp near here.

Efforts to Rescue Miners.

Sparta, Minn., Sept. 19.—Heroic efforts are being made to save the lives of three miners who are entombed in the Malta mine near Sparta, with all means of escape cut off. They were trapped shortly after fire attacked the mine. Firemen are fighting the flames, while a rescuing party is working hard to save their lives. Practically all hope of saving the miners has been abandoned.

BETHANY M. P. CHURCH.

The First Presbyterian Church, now occupied by the Bethany M. P. Church, will be reopened next Sunday with appropriate services, the edifice having been put in first class condition. At 11 a. m. Dr. Joseph L. Mills, pastor of South Baltimore M. P. Church, and formerly pastor of the Alexandria church, will preach the reopening sermon. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock short addresses will be made by the pastor, Dr. Mills, Rev. R S. Lawrenson, of Cherrydale M. P. Church, Alexandria county, and Rev. J. R. Sevier, of the Second Presbyterian Church in this city. Special music will be rendered by the Sabbath school. At night the pastor will preach. The interior presents a very neat and attractive appearance, the walls having been calsomined in terra cotta with dark trimmings, and all the wood work painted in white, the pews restained, the gas fixtures regilded and new globes added. The church is now brilliantly lighted by electricity. The fine old clock has been put in thorough order by Chas. F. DeMoll and the pipe organ renovated by Prof. Reilly, of Washington. By Sunday a new carpet will have been laid in the church and matting and linoleum in the vestibule. All the repairs have been made by the Bethany Church. The Presbyterian Church has had a new tin roof placed upon the entire building. There will be no appeal for money, as the cost of repairs have all been provided for. Rudd & Birrell had the contract for painting and calsomining; Kirby & Webster the electric work; Griffin & Michelbach, carpets; J. D. Stanton, gas fittings, and Bernard B. Brown, carpentering work.

THE CITY LIGHTS.

Some observant people claim that the arc lights for street purposes are not turned on as early as they might be. The Alexandria Electric Company, in Mr. E. G. Mandeville's bid as read in Council and the ordinance and contract, specify that the lights shall be of the latest type, and of 2,000 candle power. This is 500 more than the Schuyler lights when they were placed in 1889, which of course were not so strong when taken down in February last. The Alexandria Electric Company's agreement with the city, it is said, provided that the lights shall burn "all night and every night from sunset to sunrise," but it is claimed that it is considerably past sunset when the current is turned on. The necessity for promptly turning on the lights at sunset is not pressing, "but it so nominated in the bond," and if the obligation is not lived up to then a rebate is due the city, and the matter can be settled by those representing the Alexandria Electric Company and the committee on light representing the City Council. This committee is considering matters covered by the report of Mr. Philander Betts, who was employed as an expert to report on the plant and service of the Alexandria Electric Company. The sun sets about 6 o'clock this evening and rises about 6 o'clock tomorrow morning.

REBEKAH LODGE.

Samarian Rebekah Lodge, No. 27, met in their hall last night at which time there were two candidates initiated through the mysteries of the degree. There was also a celebration of the fifty-sixth anniversary of the Rebekahs of the world. There was a visitation from Mayflower Lodge of Accotink. After the meeting closed the members and visitors repaired to the lower hall and enjoyed a very bountiful repast which had been prepared by the committee. After supper there were speeches, recitations and music rendered by the members. The special features of the evening were recitations by Mrs. Friedlander, N. G., and a piano solo by Mr. O. W. O'Meara. The Rebekahs were instituted by Vice President Colfax, in the year of 1857. Since the organization of the order there has been a rapid increase in membership. Through the assistance of the Rebekahs, homes have been built for orphans of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs throughout the world. There is a home in Lynchburg which is a credit to the order.

WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Wildt last evening, the contracting parties being Lilia, their youngest daughter, and Mr. C. A. Gwinn, of Missouri. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, of Grace Church. The bride was attired in a blue traveling suit with hat to match and carried bride roses. The bride received some handsome presents, among them being a purse of $500 in gold, given by her uncle, Mr. F. A. Calmes. The parlors were prettily decorated with palms and cut flowers. Only members of the immediate family were present at the ceremony. The bride and groom left on the 7:30 o'clock boat for the Jamestown Exposition and from there will go to their home in Missouri.

CHANNEL THROUGH FLATS.

The scoop dredging machine belonging to the John Miller Company of Washington has been employed for some in completing the channel through the Potomac flats a short distance south of Sheppard's, and opposite this city. The channel through the flats will be used by truck farmers who grow garden stuff in the District of Columbia and Maryland and bring it to market in boats. The new channel also provides a means of reaching the new almshouse and reform school ground, located in the southern end of the District of Columbia.

OPENING OF NEW STORE.

A large crowd thronged Swan Bros', new store, northeast corner of King and Pitt streets, last night. The store was brilliantly illuminated, and music added to the pleasant surroundings. The large stock of dress goods men's furnishings, fancy articles &c. was displayed to advantage, and a souvenir was given to every visitor. Mr. Joseph F. Rodgers was the contractor for the remodeling of the store, and the work is justly commended by all.

PERSONAL

The Right Rev. Augustine Van de Viver, bishop of Richmond, who has been on a visit to his old home in Belgium, arrived in New York from Europe last Saturday. He was a guest at St. Mary's Church rectory, in this city, on Tuesday on his way to Richmond.

Services will be held at Bealeton Presbyterian Church, commencing Sunday night, September 22nd, and continuing every night through the week. Rev. J. R. Sevier, of the Second Presbyterian Church in this city, will assist the pastor, Rev. L. F. Harper.

Miss Edith R. Goodhand has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in North Carolina.

James Mumford Rose has returned from a pleasant trip to the Jamestown Exposition.

Miss Mamie Bulla, of Omaha, Neb., arrived in this city today and will be the guest of the Rev. C. D. Bulla, at the rectory of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. She will leave here for Buena Vista later to attend the Southern Seminary during the winter.

WOULD INCREASE LICENSE.

The advocates of high license are again in evidence, and a measure to reduce the number of barrooms in this city, by increasing the corporation license for the sale of liquor, has been projected by certain residents of this city and will probably be brought to the attention of the city council. It is proposed to increase the corporation license from $100, the present cost, to $300, or $350. The State license now paid by the dealers is $350.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Harry Catts, who died Monday, took place this afternoon from his residence in West End. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. S. A Wallis, and the interment was in the Presbyterian cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. John Leadbeater, H. D. Ashton, Herbert Rose, S. M. Pullman, James Bolden and John E. Catts.

POLICE COURT.

There were but two cases before the Police Court this morning. A white man, an old offender, against whom the chronic charge of drunkenness was urged, was sent to jail for ten days. A young colored man, who had indulged too freely at a wedding last night, was dismissed with a warning not to tarry too long with the wine in future.

Sick Headache.

This disease is caused by a derangement of the stomach. Take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to correct this disorder and the sick headache will disappear. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Isaac Edney, colored, escaped from the chain gang yesterday.

Rain has been falling today, and a cool northwest wind has prevailed.

There will be an inspection of Old Dominion Commandery, No. 6, Knight's Templar at their meeting tomorrow night.

George, the infant son of Mr. C. S. H. and Mrs. Alice G. Cobb, died at his parents' home, 329 south Lee street, this morning.

A meeting will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the corner of King and Alfred streets to reorganize a football team known last year as the A. A. C.

A pistol shot attracted attention at a late hour last night in the "Petersburg" neighborhood. Officer Henderson immediately scoured the vicinity, but he was unable to ascertain who discharged the weapon.

The annual inspection of the Alexandria Light Infantry will be held in Armory Hall next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The inspection will be conducted by Col. J. Lane Stern, assistant inspector-general of the State troops.

The remains of the late Robert W. Whaley, whose death occurred at Crookston, Minn., more than a year ago, accompanied by his mother, his widow, Mrs. Irma V. Whaley, and two children, arrived in this city this morning. The remains were interred in Bethel Cemetery by Demaine & Son.

See notice of Clerk of Gas. All gas bills paid by October 1st entitle the consumer to a discount of 2 cents per 100 feet.

MINISTER ATTACKS ELDERS.

"Critical and unsympathetic elders cause a lack of candidates for the Christian ministry, and a day of reckoning is coming for those who pay ministers starvation wages," said the Rev. John F. Carson, of the Central Church, of Brooklyn, at the meeting of the Lackawanna Presbytery at West Pittston, Pa., Tuesday. In the course of his address he said:

"Many big-souled men in the Christian ministry are hurt by the unsympathetic and critical attitude of some of the elders. Would God that this message might go out to all the elders of the church throughout the United States. This attitude on the part of some of the elders is one of the reasons why there are not more candidates for the Christian ministry. Ministers should have no domination from the pew; should acknowledge no master but Christ. Any man who tried to dominate in my church would go out, or I would. My heart bleeds for some of the faithful ministers who are living upon starvation wages in this great wealthy Presbyterian Church, and they are meeting these conditions and bearing them for Christ's sake, but some day there will come a day of reckoning for those who have misused them."

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

At the meeting of the National Anti-Saloon League in Norfolk yesterday, it was announced by State Superintendent Anderson, of Maryland, that Cardinal Gibbons will name a member of the headquarters committee of the Maryland Anti-Saloon League. The Maryland district also includes the District of Columbia.

Officers of the national organization elected yesterday are as followers: President, Bishop Luther B. Wilson, of Chattanooga; general superintendent, Dr. P. A. Baker, of Columbus; recording secretary, Rev. S. E Nicholson, of Harrisburg; corresponding secretary, James L. Ewing, of Washington; treasurer, Foster Copeland, of Columbus.

Among the vice presidents are Rev. Dr. F. D. Power, of Washington. All the above officers were re-elected.

Deadlock Broken.

Boston, Sept. 19.—The dead-lock between the farmers and the contractors regarding the process of milk is broken. Today a majority of the produces who have been here for the past week trying to get a 10 cent advance on an eight quart can from wholesalers, went home disgusted, many of them declaring that they would feed their milk to stock rather than sell it for the present price. As a result the large cities of New England are threatened with a milk famine. The contractors have offered the farmers 37 cents a can, which is an increase of seven cents. So far as the consumer is concerned present conditions mean within a few weeks nine cent milk.

Anjudged Invalid

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 19.—In so far as it applies to the Susquehenna River and Western Railroad Company, which connects Bloomfield Junction the Pennsylvania tow-cent passenger rate law, was today adjudged invalid, unconstitutional and avoid, in an opinion by Judge Shull, of Perry county. The law, the judge declared, is in derogation of both the United States and the Pennsylvania constitution.

Today's treasury statement was: Receipts $2,251,066; expenditures $2,020,000.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 19.—Bulls predicted today advances in the Hill stocks, Union Pacific and Reading, and was backed up by the appearance of large buying orders in those stocks. The transfer books are already closed for the annual meeting on October 8, of the Union Pacific stockholders, but in spite of this fact traders in that stock entertained a belief that the buying had some connection with an effort to change the personnel of the directory. Other railroad stocks joined in the upward movement and made gains ranging from small fractions to about 1 point. The industrial issues were irregular, the steel stocks being still offered in large blocks, with steel common supplied all the way from 28⅜ down to 28, while National Lead made a 2 point advance.

Fox Terrier's Points.

The fox terrier is the most intelligent of all the smaller breeds, and there is hardly a trick that he cannot learn in a very few lessons. He is usually healthy, makes the best kind of a watch dog, and his ability to catch and kill rats and other vermin is another story. In symmetry, size and character the dog must present a generally gay, lively and active appearance. The terrier, like the foxhound, must on no account be "leggy," nor must he be too short in the leg. He should stand like a cleverly made hunter, covering a lot of ground, yet with a short back, as before stated. He will then attain the highest degree of propelling power, together with the greatest length of stride that is compatible with the length of his body. Weight is not a certain criterion of a terrier's fitness for his work—general shape, size and contour are the main points, and if a dog can gallop and stay and follow his fox up a drain it matters little what his weight is to a pound or so, though roughly speaking, it may be said that he should not scale over twenty pounds. —Eugene R. Cole in Home Magazine.

A Patient Snake.

One does not often attribute the virtue of patience to a snake. "Letters From a Surgeon," however, contain an anecdote in which its existence is evident. Dr. Perry, surgeon of the Twentieth Massachusetts, wakened in camp one morning to find himself tightly held in the clutch of Dr. Hayward, his senior officer.

"Don't move, John, till I say three!" ordered the senior sharply. "Then seize my hands and spring to your feet. One, two, three!"

At the word Dr. Perry jumped, and he never made a cleaner leap. He was just in time to see a moccasin dive under the coat which he had been using for a pillow. Armed with sticks, they dragged the coat away, but saw only the hole into which the snake had glided. The surgeon had accidentally blocked the entrance to the reptile's abode, and it had lain all coiled under the back of his neck, waiting patiently for him to move so it could enter.

The Wrong Man.

"Now, my dear sir," said the life assurance agent persuasively, "I wonder if I might put before you one or two powerful reasons why you should insure your life?"

"Certainly, my dear sir," replied the victim; "fire away. I shall be delighted to listen to you."

Accordingly the life assurance man delivered a lecture of nearly half an hour's duration on the advantages of life assurance, setting forth all the reasons why his listener should insure his life immediately for a large amount. When he was done the other man said:

"Well, that's not bad, but nothing new."

"Nothing new?" asked the life assurance man. "What do you mean?"

"Oh, well," said the other, "you see, I'm a life assurance agent myself, and I wanted to see if you had any new ideas to give me."

Appreciating Wagner.

"The Ring of the Niebelungen" was first produced in London under the special patronage of King Edward VII. when he was Prince of Wales. He loyally remained in his box from beginning to end, although he confessed afterward that it was the hardest work he ever did. When Wotan came on the darkened stage to an accompaniment of discords the prince took a doze and an hour later was awakened by a double forte crash of the large orchestra. He fell asleep again, but in fifteen minutes was startled by another tremendous crash and found Wotan still singing against time. After the performance the prince told the manager in great confidence that if there was a Wotan in other Wagner operas he would withdraw his patronage.

Even the Sultan.

On one occasion when the famous Nasr-ed-din was pressed for money he went to the sultan for permission to levy a tax of a penny on every man in Turkey who was afraid of his wife. The sultan gave him leave, and at the end of a few months Nasr-ed-din returned with a hundred mules laden with gold. "But what am I to get out of all this?" inquired the sultan. "I have brought you a beautiful Georgian slave," replied the sage. "Hush!" said the sultan, glancing over his shoulder. "Don't let my wife hear!" And the wily Nasr-ed-din Hedja added another penny to his store.

The One Exception.

The topic of debate at the Poets' club meeting was, "Which of the Sexes Contributes Most to Life's Happiness?"

"I think," said a woman called upon to speak on the feminine side, "that there is no doubt that man contributes most to the life happiness of woman—that is" (upon second thought) "unless he happens to be her husband."

Not Innocent.

"Tommy, I'm going to punish you severely."

"What for, pa?"

"Now, don't try that innocence game. I know all the bad things you've done today."

"No, you don't, pa. You don't know where I hid the strap you whack me with."

Noses of Great Men.

Prominent noses seem to have been the property of many great men. Lycurgus and Solon had noses six inches in length, and Ovid was surnamed Naso on account of his large nose. Scipio Nasica derived his name from his prominent olfactory organ, and Alexander the Great and Cardinals Wolsey and Richelieu all had large noses. On the medals of Cyrus and Artaxerxes their noses came clear out to the rim of the coin. Washington's was the true aquiline type, indicative of firmness and patience, as was the nose of Julius Caesar. Mohammed had a singular nose. It was so curved that a writer has told us that the point of it seemed continually striving to insert itself between his lips. The noses of Franklin, Shakespeare and Dr. Johnson all had wide nostrils, betokening strength and love of thought. The nose of Napoleon was exquisitely though firmly chiseled. He often said, "Give me a man with plenty of nose!" Frederick the Great had so large a nose that Lavater offered to wager that blindfolded he could tell it among 10,000 by merely taking it between his thumb and forefinger.

The Fly That Buzzed For Mendelssohn

The following story is told of the music of the overture to "A Midsummer Night's Dream:" While Mendelssohn was deep in the making of this same fine overture he went riding one day with a friend. In order, after awhile, to rest their horses the two boon companions dismounted and stretched themselves out under the shade of a great tree. Suddenly there came an excited "Hush!" from the great composer, who half arose very cautiously. A large fly was buzzing over them, and Mendelssohn was anxious to catch the true sound of the insect's hum as it gradually drifted farther away. Many days later when the overture had been completed the artist called his friend's attention to that passage in progression where the violoncello modulates in the chord of the seventh of the descending scale from B minor to F sharp minor. "There, that's the fly that buzzed past us at Schonhausen," said Mendelssohn.

Crushing a Critic.

School superintendents in New York among their many duties are expected to report on the personality of the teachers in their district. It is not always easy to get "a line" on that quality of a teacher, so many are lenient in the work. One of the superintendents, however, is never satisfied until he has made the test for orderliness by asking the teacher to open his or her desk. One day he found one of his fair subordinates with things in great confusion. She was evidently violating heaven's first law.

"My dear," said he to the blushing delinquent, "I don't believe you would make a good housekeeper."

The desk closed with a bang. There was fire in her eye as she calmly replied:

"Oh! Are you looking for a housekeeper?"—New York Press.

Falling Into Hole In Air.

One of the strange experiences of a balloonist is that of falling into "a hole in the air," which Mr. Rolker reports as follows: "So you continue sailing, enjoying the present with little thought of the startling surprises that may be before you. Ahead of you, unseen, may be what the balloonist calls a 'hole in the air,' resembling the vortex of a maelstrom, and down this you may literally fall at a rate which is terrifying until by sacrificing two or three bagfuls of sand at once your pilot checks your downward flight. But these 'holes' are scarce, and as a rule the atmosphere is of uniform carrying power."—American Magazine.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so week from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid makes it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, billiousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c.
